

Fourth Annual Hank's Yanks Golf Classic Engineers Country Club at Roslyn

Friday, September 14th | New York

Silent Auction and Participant/Celebrity Gifts Request

The Fourth Annual Hank's Yanks Golf Classic at Engineers at Roslyn will be held on Friday, September 14th.

The tournament is an effort to raise money in support of Hank's Yanks Baseball Foundation 501(c)3. The funds raised for the foundation will support both the baseball activities as well as the community outreach work of the outstanding young athletes involved with Hank's Yanks, the youth baseball teams backed by New York Yankee owner, Hank Steinbrenner.

Could you help our efforts by donating a product and/or service for us to place in our silent auction or participant and celebrity gift bags?

The tournament has been a huge success, and we anticipate this year's tournament to be even better! Only a few spots remain for the tournament, and our celebrity list is growing every day!

We have sourced major media partners and sponsors, received commitments from celebrity participants and with the support of Hank Steinbrenner, we look forward to a great day at Roslyn! Your donation would be a valuable asset and would go a long way in contributing to the long-term success of the tournament, and more importantly, Hank's Yanks Baseball Foundation!

We thank you for considering a donation and look forward to your response. Should you choose to donate, please complete the attached form or email the details listed, and we'll handle everything!

Sincerely,
Theresa Negron
